

Rishi Sharma

Vice President : Sales and Marketing , Mavyn

Prior Companies: Matrix cellular ltd, Jmd ltd.

Experience : 18 years Sales and Marketing

A Logistics Entrepreneur

Rishi Sharma is the Vice President of Marketing and Sales at Mavyn, where he plays a pivotal role in driving the company's growth by leading the development and execution of comprehensive marketing strategies. With an impressive 18-year career spanning multiple industries, including logistics, international markets, and real estate, Rishi is recognized for his ability to translate business objectives into actionable marketing initiatives that deliver measurable results.

Rishi holds a Master's degree in Business Administration from Amity University, Noida. Known for his results-driven approach, he excels at aligning business objectives with innovative marketing initiatives. Rishi is passionate about driving customer-centric strategies that deliver tangible outcomes, making him an invaluable asset in Mavyn's mission to redefine the logistics sector.

Brief Introduction

Rishi enjoys traveling and often engages in discussions about politics and global business trends. His well-rounded personality and relentless pursuit of excellence make him a leader who not only inspires his team but also consistently pushes boundaries to achieve remarkable business outcomes.